Creekside Landing is a Community of Care that provides Complex Care, Assisted Living and Independent Living together at one location. With these three levels of service, residents are able to “age in place” without having to move or relocate should their care needs change.

Our Creekside Landing Independent Living suites are ideal for active seniors, yet offers the peace of mind that comes with knowing that assistance is available should the need arise. We offer residents a life full of comfort, independence and happiness, by providing a maintenance free lifestyle. You can relax and leave the chores to us.

Whether you enjoy the order of a well-organized day complete with delicious meals and a vibrant social calendar or living at your own tempo, you will always feel at home at Creekside Landing Independent Living.

Creekside Landing is a community in the truest sense – alive with neighbours who share their appetite for living life to the fullest. Come explore our offerings and meet some new friends.

MISSION

In partnership with others, we help individuals help themselves. We assist and support residents in making choices that promote independence, enhance their lives and enable them to age with dignity.

VISION

Within a culture of safety, Kaigo Retirement Communities will be recognized as an excellent place for residents to live, for staff to work, and where all are valued and respected.

VALUES

RESIDENT: We value our residents and excellence in care. We use a resident centered approach and respect the needs and rights of each individual.

ENVIRONMENT: We foster a caring, supportive home-like environment, where respect, openness and honesty are endorsed.

SAFETY: We are committed to creating a culture of safety for those we serve and those who serve.

OUR TEAM: We recognize and value the contributions of staff, residents, family and volunteers. “Partners in Caring” Kaigo Retirement Communities.
